Assessment Overview

The Tax Representation evaluates candidates on their knowledge and practical application skills across the following categories:

- 1 Taxpayer Advocacy
This topic covers representing taxpayers before the IRS in exams, collections, and other contacts. Questions will test your ability to understand representation authority, manage information requests, and guide clients through basic administrative processes and communication strategies.
- 2 Tax Compliance
This topic covers IRS examination and appeals procedures. Questions will assess your ability to navigate the audit process, evaluate when to appeal, prepare protest letters at a conceptual level, and understand the roles of Exam, Appeals, and judicial options.
- 3 Tax Debt Resolution
This topic covers the offer in compromise program for tax debt resolution. Questions will test your ability to identify when an OIC is appropriate, understand basic eligibility standards, and evaluate feasibility based on client financial information.
- 4 Tax Relief
This topic covers IRS penalty types and methods for relief or abatement. Questions will assess your ability to identify applicable penalties, apply reasonable cause or first-time abatement concepts, and prepare or plan effective penalty relief requests.
- 5 Professional Conduct
This topic covers Circular 230 rules governing practice before the IRS. Questions will assess your ability to recognize due diligence obligations, conflicts of interest, written advice standards, and potential sanctions in common practitioner scenarios.
- 6 Compliance Ethics
This topic covers the Taxpayer Bill of Rights and related protections. Questions will test your ability to identify rights implicated in common IRS interactions and to advise clients on asserting and preserving those rights.

This assessment ensures candidates possess practical readiness to perform tasks efficiently with accuracy and compliance.

Proctoring Integrity Report

To ensure fairness, authenticity, and exam integrity, this assessment was conducted under strict remote proctoring protocols. The system monitored the candidate's screen activity, audio environment, webcam feed, and system behaviour throughout the test session. Automated flags were used to detect any suspicious behaviour such as unauthorized device usage, presence of multiple individuals, or window/tab switching.

This report summarizes the proctoring conditions, environmental compliance, and any violations or anomalies detected during the assessment. A clean proctoring record indicates that the candidate adhered fully to test integrity guidelines, enhancing the credibility of their performance results.

Proctoring Guideline Given To Candidate

To maintain fairness and integrity, the assessment system will monitor for suspicious activities, including camera visibility. Strictly follow these guidelines to avoid violations:

Violation	Required Action
No Face Detected	Sit directly in front of the webcam with adequate lighting. Ensure your entire face is visible.
Multiple People Detected	Take the assessment alone in a quiet space. Ensure no other individual appears on camera.
Copy-Paste Detection	Type all answers manually. Copy-pasting is strictly prohibited.
Books/Notes Detected	Clear your workspace of any physical study materials unless explicitly permitted.
Mobile Phone Detected	Do not use your mobile phone during the assessment. Keep it out of reach.
Camera Not Detected	Verify your webcam is properly connected and functioning correctly before starting.
Window Focus Out	Stay focused on the assessment window. Avoid minimizing, switching tabs, or opening new windows.
Multiple Screens Detected	Ensure only one screen is active during the test. If using multiple monitors, disconnect the extra screens before starting the test to avoid flagging.
